SHIP PROBABLY LOST

Disaster Believed to Have Overtaken Explorers.

DEATH IN THE FROZEN NORTH

It Is Believed that the Exploring Ship, "Duchess of Bedford," Will Never Be Heard From Again, as Well as Her Crew.

Athabasco Landing, Canada, Sept. 7.—News of the probable loss of the schooner Duchess of Bedford, the ship belonging to the Anglo-American Arctic expedition which noped to find a new continent north of the Mackenzie river, was brought here by Alfred Harrison who has been in the arctic circle for two years, and who came here on the steamer Midnight Sun.

Mr. Harrison, said Ernest Stefansson, of Harvard university, after whom the expedition has been called, himself brought the news of the loss of their boat to Herschell Island. He also brought the news of the disappearance of three members of the party and expressed the fear that they had met death in the Frozen North.

The missing men are Captain Hikkelson, a Dane; Ernest Leffingwell, of Chicago, and J. M. Marks.

They left the service in February with sixty days' provisions for the supposed land to the north and had been gone seventy days and no news had been received from them. One of their teams on its way had returned, and it is likely the party will never be heard from again.

The schooner Duchess of Bedford, Stefansson thought, had probably sunk, the ship had filled with water, probably from the ice strain, but they had been able to remove everything of value to the main shore.

KING CAUSED DIVORCE SUIT.

Kentuckian Said To Be Seeking Separation from His Wife.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 7.—A divorce suit which is considered the result of an estrangement caused by King Edward of England has come to light, after having been kept secret since June.

The suit was filed by Lewis T. Brown against Margaret Johnson Brown on the ground of abandonment.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of C. M. Johnson, formerly European agent of the Hoe Press company, with headquarters in London.

Mrs. Brown was a woman of rare beauty, and attracted attention everywhere. Matters came to a climax when Mr. and Mrs. Brown attended a theater where King Edward was attracted by Mrs. Brown's beauty, and asked an introduction. Brown objected, and his wife ridiculed his objections. To this incident, it is said, is due the estrangement and separation.

Brown returned to Kentucky, and is now in the government revenue service at Maysville, Ky.

Contract Given Marshall & Bruce.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 7.—The contract for printing the new code of Alabama has been let to the Marshall & Bruce company, of Nashville, for about $31,000. The details have not yet been made up, but that is around the figure, varying only a few dollars either way. It may take several days to get these details worked up.

Will Play in Philadelphia.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 7.—Neal Ball, last shortstop, who was sold to the New York Americans for $2,500, will join Clark Griffith in Philadelphia and probably play Monday. He has been hitting above three hundred and is one of the greatest shortstops of the Southern league.

Former U. S. Consul Suicides.

Washington Sept. 7.—William H. Abercrombie, formerly United States consul at Nagasaki, Japan, committed suicide by asphyxiation at his apartment in Stone Leigh Court here Thursday. He was 65 years old.

TO SAVE AGED MOTHER,

Boy Stops Father's Elopement by Hiring Negro to Kill the Widow.

Millerton, La., Sept. 7.—The mystery surrounding the murder, two weeks ago, of Mrs. Lennie Bond, a comely young widow, and her five-year-old son, by a load of buckshot fired through a window into the bed in which they slept, has been dissipated. It is declared that Benjamin Baucum, 20 years old, son of Dr. J. Baucum, a prominent physician, employed Green Cooper, a negro, to kill the woman, who was 35, upon being unable to persuade his father not to elope with her.

The assassination is said to have been a new application of the unwritten law; that young Baucum planned the deed in order to save his aged mother from disgrace. Dr. Baucum has six children. Benjamin, the eldest, learned that his father, whose infatuation for the pretty widow was a common scandal, had mortgaged all of his property and intended to desert his family.

The son pleaded with his father not to bring disgrace upon the family and ruin his career, but Dr. Baucum was so madly in love that he declined to give up his passion, commanding his son to keep silent about the proposed flight.

The boy, driven to desperation, concluded that the solution of the trouble lay in the killing of Mrs. Bond.

Both young Baucum and Cooper have been indicted and are in jail at Homer, having been denied bail.

It is expected that their preliminary trial will be held this week.

GIRLS TRAP BURGLAR.

They Entertained Him for Two Hours. He Promised to Reform.

Hattiesburg, Miss., Sept. 7.—After trapping a burglar, Ruby, Jennie and Dora Grey, sisters, entertained their midnight visitor for two hours in such a fascinating manner that the intruder forgot his mission and decided to be good, the sisters say, on promise of his freedom.

The girls had just fallen to sleep when they were awakened by a noise at a window of their room. Each thought it was a sister trying to scare her, but the shadow of a man soon showed them that it was a burglar.

Ruby Grey carefully crept out of bed, crawled to an obscure position, and, when the burglar entered the room, turned on the light and closed the window. For two hours they pleaded with him to reform. He said he wanted nothing but money. The girls gave him their small change and then he departed. They reported the matter to the police and refuse to give the name that the burglar gave to them. Several rich homes recently have been robbed here, and the owners are displeased with the action of the Grey sisters.

IS LONE BANDIT A GIRL?

Believed Los Angeles Street Car Hold Ups Were by Woman.

Los Angeles, Sept. 7.—For the second time within a week a street car was held up and robbed at the point of a revolver by a robber so slight in figure and possessed of such delicate features that the police believe the crimes to have been committed by a woman in man's attire.

Just before midnight recently a Hooper avenue car, between Ascot park and Compton street, in the suburbs, was boarded by the robber as the car rounded a curve. The motorman and conductor were held up at the point of a revolver, yielding about $4.

Died from Spider's Bite.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—A spider's bite caused the death of Helen, the 15 year-old daughter of Charles Barnhot, a banker of Douglas county, Ill., after six days of intense suffering. The girl was playing in the yard a mile her home and, becoming tired, lay down on the grass to take a nap. She was suddenly awakened by a sting on her lip and, putting her hand up, brushed off a big spider that was clinging tenaciously. Blood poisoning set in, and despite the efforts of several physicians, she became worse gradually and died.

IS STILL A MYSTERY

No Light Thrown on Killing of Cleveland, O., Broker.

HIS WIFE IS UNDER GUARD

She Has Recovered, After Being in a State of Coma for Twenty-Four Hours—Young Girl Testifies as to Burglar Theory.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 7.—There were no developments Thursday in the investigation into the murder of John J. Phillips, the extensive coal operator and broker that tended to solve the mystery surrounding the shooting which resulted in his death in his home in East Cleveland early Monday morning.

Mrs. Phillips, against whom warrants were issued, charging her with manslaughter and second degree murder, recovered after having been in a state of coma for twenty-four hours.

Up to a late hour the warrants had not been served upon her, and Chief of Police Stamberg said there would be no hurry, in serving them, as the woman is not only very ill, but is also under guard.

Several friends of Mrs. Phillips were admitted to her room and, it is understood, she is fully cognizant of the charge against her and of other phases of the investigation.

At the coroner's inquest Ethel Clark, known as Ethel Phillips, aged 10, niece of the murdered man and adopted daughter of Phillips, was the principal witness. She told a straightforward story of her knowledge of things that occurred in the Phillips home early Monday morning, when her uncle and adopted father was shot, and clearly showed her belief in the theory that he had ben shot by burglars.

DYING, HE REFUSED LIQUOR.

Memorial Chimes in Honor of Engineer Who Perished in Wreck.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 7.—The heroism and self-sacrifice of John Babb, an engine driver who met his death under his engine in a wreck near Lenoir City, Tenn., Feb. 27, 1907, will be perpetuated in the notes of church chimes which will be placed in the belfry of the new Second Presbyterian church in this city.

A landslide caused Babb's train to turn over down an embankment into the edge of the Tennessee river. Several persons were killed and many were injured.

Babb was pinned under his engine, mortally wounded, when the rescuers reached him and offered him a drink of whisky. He refused, declaring he had never tasted it and never would.

"I am dying, so don't worry about me, but go and help the women and children in the cars," he said, dying a few moments later.

Girl Routs Burglar with Pistol.

Elwood, Ind., Sept. 7.—Miss Ida Giselbach, aged 17 years, was sitting in her room when she heard a step on the stairs. She turned out the electric light and stood at the door of her room with a revolver in her hand. The intruder entered and the young woman turned on the light. With revolver presented she ordered him to hold up his hands, which he did in a hurry. Then she got excited and fired a shot unintentionally, the burglar fell over backward and rolled down the stairs. Miss Giselbach followed and shot five times as he was fleeing from the house.

Officers for Horse Show Society.

Atlanta, Sept. 7.—The organization of the Atlanta horse show, which will inaugurate its initial season in Atlanta the third week in October, was perfected at an enthusiastic meeting Thursday night, when permanent officers were elected. The officers are as follows: President, William Lawson Peel; first vice president, H. Cobb Caldwell; secretary, D. N. McCullough; treasurer, J. K. Otley; attorney, W. Carroll Battimore. The second, third and fourth vice presidents will be named later.

KISSED UNWELCOME BABE.

Then Child-Mother Flung It Into the Lake.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—"I took the clothes from my little baby, kissed it goodby, and then held it far out over the water, like this, and let it fall."

This startling statement, punctuated with sobs and completed in a tone of voice almost a shriek, concluded the testimony of little Mary Lappala, the Finnish "child-mother" on trial before Judge Chetlain on a charge of drowning her two-weeks-old babe.

She told of her little romance, and of her misfortune. She related the terrible blow she suffered when Frank Wallkala refused to marry her.

She suffered for weeks, and then her little "Laura" was born in Chicago.

She worried and was unable to conceal the shame of it all.

Finally she went to the lake—to the water that had been dear to her in her Finnish home—and there took the little life of the only one dear to her in this world. It was a sensational, heartrending story.

Mrs. Russell Doubleday, wife of the western representative of Doubleday, Page & Co., publishers, who formerly employed Mary as a domestic in New York city, is supplying the funds for Mary's defense.

DRUG CLERK SUICIDES.

Birmingham Man Had Been Missing Since Tuesday.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 7.—The dead body of J. P. Ledbetter, a well known drug clerk, who has been missing since Tuesday, was found on Thursday in a room at the Colonial hotel. Before he left the drug store where he was employed he was seen to place a bottle of morphine in his pocket. A dram of this drug, taken with suicidal intent, caused death.

He left a note to his wife and three children biding them goodby and adding: "May you all go to heaven; the Lord knows where I will go."

Ledbetter registered at the Colonial hotel Tuesday night under the name of "J. C. Johnson." He is believed to have killed himself during that night. Recently two children of Ledbetter died and this, with his own ill health, preyed upon his mind, his friends say.

SAVED BY AN ELEPHANT.

Big Brute Pulled Wreckage from the Imprisoned Engineer.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—Bacil, the mother of Jumbo, an elephant more than 200 years of age, saved the life of a man at Wheeling, W. Va.

A freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad was wrecked near Morgantown, the engine driver being caught underneath his engine. The wreck caugat fire, and it appeared as if the man was doomed. The sections following the wrecked train, having aboard a circus, came up and Bacil lifted the wreckage with her trunk from the body of the engine driver. Eight other elephants filled their trunks with river water and extinguished the fire.

Central's Tax Value Fixed.

Atlanta, Sept. 7.—Sworn to by J. F. Hanson, president, that the Central of Georgia system was "under ordinary conditions worth $50,000,000." that section of it in Georgia, admitted to be over half of the property, was Thursday assessed at a value of $20,037,906.30. This was just $9,106,373.30 less than the comptroller had assessed the property and $4,037,906.30 more than the Central had returned the property for taxation.

Refuses to Arbitrate.

Antwerp, Sept. 7.—The Maritime Federation has refused the labor law minister's proposal to arbitrate the dispute between the dock laborers, porters and others and the shipping companies.

Brewers Indicted.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 7.—The grand jury here has indicted the Anheuser-Busch Brewing association of St. Louis, for shipping goods to this city without a state license.

IS STABBED TO DEATH

Tragedy on a Street Car Near Birmingham, Ala.

CONDUCTOR WAS THE VICTIM

In Dispute Over Car Fare, Unknown Negro Drew Murderous Knife and Plunged It Into the Breast of Conductor Burnett.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 7.—As the result of a dispute over the payment of a five-cent car fare an unknown negro drew a murderous knife from his pocket and stabbed Frank R. Burnett, a conductor on the South Ensley line, early Friday while the car was approaching Hilltop station, near Ensley.

The wounded man sank to the floor of the car and died almost instantly, the blade of the knife having penetrated the region of his heart.

The murderer sprang from the moving car and fled through the woods.

John Williams, negro, was later arrested on suspicion of being the murderer. He was apprehended on a North Ensley car returning to the city of Birmingham.

WEDS A BARON.

Girl Surprised to Learn Her Husband is a Nobleman.

Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 7.—When Miss Elizabeth Stoddard, of this city, became married to Alexander de Koressey, employed as an electrical engineer in the General Electric works here, she had no idea that he was a nobleman.

It was not until the marriage ceremony was in progress that the groom announced to the officiating clergy that he is an Austrian baron. The bride was almost overcome with surprise.

The young man had told Miss Stoddard's father his secret, but believed that his fiance be not informed of the time of the wedding, as he wished her to love him for himself, and not his title.

Baron Koressey has been employed by the General Electric company for four years.

15 PERISH IN FIRE.

Hotel Destroyed at Shelton, Wash. Eight Victims Unidentified.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 7.—Fire destroyed the Webb hotel at Shelton, 20 miles from Tacoma Wednesday night. It is supposed 15 persons perished.

Following are the known victims: Miss May Bailey, chambermaid; Mrs. Mudge, William Holmes, waiter mechanic; Pearl Larsen, a livery wagon driver; Mrs. Gay, a guest of the hotel; D. B. Heaney, a logger. Eight are unidentified.

Society Elects Officers.

Atlanta, Sept. 7.—At a largely attended meeting of the South Carolina Society of Georgia, held Thursday night, in the parlors of The Kimball, officers for the ensuing year were elected, and a committee was appointed to arrange for a banquet which will be given by the society on a date to be determined upon later. The officers chosen are John T. Graves, president; John A. Brice, first vice president; A. H. Marchant, second vice president; and Walter W. Visanka, secretary and treasurer. The board of governors was increased from 12 to 20.

Dublin Taxes Lockers $5,000.

Dublin, Ga., Sept. 7.—The city council of Dublin has passed an ordinance, fixing the tax on locker clubs at $5,000. It was at first contemplated putting the tax at $2,000, but it was decided to raise the license to $5,000, so that there would be no possibility of the license being paid. The prohibition laws of the state are rigidly enforced here. Laurens has been dry for 15 years and would have always been dry without a state prohibition law. Blind tiger have a very small chance to do business here, as they are closed up by the officers.

MR. RUSH RESUMES DUTY.

United States Special Cotton Agent Begins Work for Season.

Benjamin Rush, United States special cotton agent for the past several years, has begun his annual duties for the year 1907, and has just returned from a tour of points in Alachua, Levy and Putnam counties, for the purpose of gathering statistics of the cotton outlook for the year.

Mr. Rush is not permitted, under the rule of the Government, to divulge any official information, but he intimated that the crop throughout the long staple district, especially in this section, would fall short, which has been conceded publicly.

Mr. Rush states that comparatively few of the gins have yet started up, owing to the scarcity of material with which to work. The fields are white with cotton, a great deal of which has been damaged by the recent rains, but it is almost impossible to secure labor to gather the staple. This is due largely to the fact that the saw mills, naval stores establishments and other industries are paying a higher scale of wages than the grower of cotton can afford to offer.

If its a Reputation

You are after, White's Cream Vermifuge has a world wide reputation as the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children. If you want a healthy, happy child get a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Shields Warren to Apalach.

Shields Warren, receiver of the United States land office, expects to leave today for Apalachicola, his old home, where he was summoned on business.

This being the home of Hon. J. N. Coombs, member of the National Republican executive committee from Florida, it is a question whether Mr. Warren was summoned on political or personal business.

The Republican bee will soon be buzzing energetically again, since an appointment to the United States district attorneyship for the Northern District of Florida must soon be made.

A Billville exchange gives us this interesting and suggestive news item:

"A young lady, who don't live far from this town, says:

"'Bill writ me a letter and said he wuz gwine ter kill me kaze I wouldn't marry him; but I met him in the big road and hit him 'side the head with a fence rail, and the last I hearn tell of him, he wuz slowly comin' back to his senses!'"

"Six years old, you say?" said the prospective purchaser of the mule to the farmer.

"That's what I'm told," was the reply, "an' that's how it's registered."

"Why, the mule looks to be every day of sixty!"

"I know it," said the farmer, "but it's worry of mind has done it. The sheriff has levied on that poor critter ten times, an' the hearin' in his left ear wuz stagnated by the hollerin' of a candidate for Congress. It's only the sorrows of life that has put gray hairs in that mule's head?"

Some Fine Potatoes.

F. Y. Douglass, who owns and conducts a farm near the English colony, a few miles southeast of the city, is about to get the reputation of being the boss sweet potato grower of this section, if not in the State.

Mr. Douglass brought to this city Friday a load of fine tubers of this year's crop, which were as large and as firm as ever seen here. In fact, on an average they were larger than the average sweet potato, and the owner sold several of them at ten cents each.

Mr. Douglass has quite a crop of these potatoes, from which he expects to realize handsomely.

JEWISH NEW YEAR WILL BEGIN TODAY

All Hebrews of City Will Close Their Stores on Monday.

A VERY SACRED DAY

Beginning at Sunset This Evening, Adherents of the Hebrew Faith Will Observe One of Their Most Historic and Important Occasions.

Beginning at sunset this evening, and continuing until the same hour Monday evening, will be observed by those of the Jewish or Hebrew nationality, as well as the American descendants, as Rosh Hashonah, which is the Jewish new year. The Jewish or Hebrew places of business will consequently be closed during Monday and Monday night, which is in keeping with the Hebrew customs since the days of Moses.

The new year falls on the first day of the seventh month, according to the Jewish calendar, which was a lunar calendar. This seventh month, known as Tishri, was a Sabbathical month to the inhabitants of Palestine. As the seventh day of the week was esteemed holy, so, too, was the seventh year a release year or a year of rest for the lands and its people. In the 25th chapter of Leviticus from the first to, and inclusive of the seventh verse, this reverence of the seventh year on the part of the inhabitants of Palestine is made clear.

And in a similar manner the seventh month was dignified and its new moon was greeted with greater blasts on the trumpets than the first day of any other month. This sacred observance of the first day of the month is fully set forth in the 10th chapter of Numbers.

In the course of time the day became a day of self-examination and judgment, and was known as Rosh (head) Hashonah (of the year) or new year's day, the sound of whose trumpets conveyed the warning to search one's ways and direct the thoughts unto God, and to return to the path of duty.

This new year's day is a day of remembrance and memorial with a persistent demand for unshaken allegiance to the permanent varieties of life. It is one of the most holy holidays observed by the Hebrew people. The orthodox Jews celebrate two days, beginning at sunset Sunday evening and continuing until sunet Tuesday evening. The reformed wing of the Jewish church, however, observes but one day, that period between Sunday evening and sunset Monday evening.

Moseley Making Improvements.

W. P. Moseley, who recently purchased the Cromwell place in West Gainesville, near the University, has begun to make extensive improvements on the same. The house is receiving needed repairs, is being somewhat altered in its arrangement, and will receive a liberal application of paint, which will materially add to its appearance.

Mr. Moseley has quite a tract of fertile garden land in the enclosure, and will no doubt engage in trucking.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland, City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

THE GAINESVILLE NATIONAL BANK

"ON THE CORNER."

Addition to Ball Family.

Information has been received in this city to the effect that the stork has visited the home of Lieutenant and Mrs. L. R. Ball at Los Angeles, California, and on August 27th left a fine girl, Nancy.

The letter bears information that mother and child are enjoying excellent health.

Lieutenant Ball, who is first lieutenant in the Thirteenth United States Cavalry, is also commandant of the University of Florida, assigned by the National Government. Himself and family are well known and popular here, and congratulations are in order.

Lieutenant Ball will return to Gainesville in time to resume his duties at the University, but his wife and children expect to remain in California during the coming year.

Sick Headache.

This disease is caused by a derangement of the stomach. Take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to correct this disorder and the sick headache will disappear. For sale by all druggists.

Ladies Not in Band.

The Sun, in mentioning the presence of the Elders of the Latter Day Saints upon the streets Friday evening, stated that the band was composed of two gentlemen and three ladies.

The gentlemen called at The Sun office yesterday and thanked the management for the note, which was very kind, they said, but a little misleading, and requested the paper to announce that these ladies were not members of the band, but merely residents of the city who belong to the church of the Latter Day Saints.

The elders were again upon the streets last night, and spoke interestingly to good crowds.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restoring the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is most pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

THE ANTI-CIGARETTE LAW.

The Sun is reliably informed that the law against the sale or giving away of cigarettes to minors is being daily violated in this city, negro men acting as purchasers for the boys who are addicted to the miserable habit.

We commend to the State, county and municipal officers whose duty is to enforce this law its careful persual which is as follows:

Section 1. That it shall hereafter be unlawful in the State of Florida for any corporation, company, firm or person to sell, barter, furnish or give away, directly or indirectly, to any minor any cigarette, cigarette wrapper or any substitute for either, or to procure for, or to persuade, advise, counsel, or compel any child under said age to smoke any cigarette.

Section 2. Any such corporation, company, firm or person violating any of the provisions of this act shall, for the first offense upon a conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not more than $50.00, nor less than $10.00; and for a second and any subsequent offense, such corporation, company, firm or person shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not more than $100.00 nor less than $10.00, and to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail for any period not exceeding sixty days.

Section 3. It is hereby made the duty of sheriffs, constables, their deputies or any police officer to enforce the provisions of this act, and he may summon any minor who may have or have had in his possession any cigarettes or cigarette material, and compel him to testify before the county judge or any justice of the peace as to where and of whom he obtained such cigarettes or cigarette material.

Particular attention of police officers is directed to section 3, under which it would seem that the boys could be stopped from indulging in the cigarette habit. Do your duty, officers.

A NEW SCHEME.

The question of joint Statehood for Arizona and some other Territory has been dropped and brought up again. There was an official announcement from Oyster Bay that there would be no further attempt on the part of the President to bring up the question of joint Statehood with Arizona and New Mexico when Congress meets again. It will be recollected that one of the hot partisan fights of the last session was over this proposition. Along with the joint Statehood of Oklahoma and Indian Territory there was the scheme to combine New Mexico and Arizona and admit this new State also. This was perfectly satisfactory to New Mexico with a large preponderance of the joint voting population, but it met with little enthusiasm from Arizona, who saw her revenues and her policy controlled from thenceforth by the sister Territory with a practically solid Mexican population. The object of the move was of course to get Arizona and New Mexico into the Union at the same time, and if, as was most likely, the new State proved persistently Democratic to at least save from having two Democratic Senators and a large number of representatives of that party in Congress. The issue was fought out and the opposition was so strong that there was no more talk of joint Statehood, and now it has been officially announced that this issue will not be revived. But in the next breath the proposition is advanced to bring up the joint Statehood proposition next year with Arizona and Nevada, the latter with a population three times that of Arizona and a State that can reasonably well be counted on as Republican. There is no question in the world that this suggestion will be fought by Arizona just as hard as was the combination with New Mexico. The object of the move is the same, and the people of Arizona will naturally rather stay out of the Union than to come in under such a handicap.

Ground is to be broken and work commenced almost immediately on the new home for the Bureau of American Republics in Washington. This is a matter of more than local interest for it will not only give Washington another public building ranking almost in beauty with the Library of Congress, but it will be the greatest meeting place for the nations of the world anywhere outside the Temple of Peace at the Hague. The building will cost, ready for occupancy, just about $1,000,000, of which $750,000 was contributed by Andrew Carnegie. It will be a specimen of mission architecture in compliment to the South American States, and the most striking architectural feature of it will be the central court that will be covered with a glass roof that can be opened in summer and closed in winter. Here there will be a collection of palms and ferns equal to that in any tropical patio. Altogether, it promises to be a remarkably striking building.

Because a woman refuses to buy a history in a book-shop is no sign she hasn't got one.

WORMS

...I had for years suffered from what medical men called Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. In August I purchased a box of Cascarets and was surprised to find that I had "got" —yes—a wriggling, squirming mass had gone. Judge our doctor's surprise when I showed him (my) feet, and in another day the remainder of the same length of a tape worm that had been sapping my vitality for years. I have enjoyed the best health ever since. I speak the unadulterated truth, and appeal to other sufferers.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonals.

VACATION SEASON COMING TO CLOSE

The President to Return to Washington Earlier Than Expected.

WILL MAKE SOUTHERN TRIP

Japanese Seizure of Patras Island of No Consequence, as It is Not Within Jurisdiction of United States—Japanese Poachers May Cause Trouble.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun

Washington, D. C., Sept. 7.—Vacation season is coming to a close, as is indicated by the announcement of the President's homecoming plans. It had been thought that Washington was going to see nothing more of the chief magistrate till the middle of October, but this program has been changed. He is coming back to Washington before his Southern trip. He will come here on Sept. 25 and be in town a few days getting up some pressing work at the executive office. Then he is going to start West on the 29th, arriving in Canton for the McKinley monument ceremonies. From there he will go to Keokuk, where he will meet the Inland Waterway's Commission and with them he will go down the Mississippi. This will be a long trip. He will touch at St. Louis, Cairo, Memphis, Vicksburg and Nashville. It had not been intended at first to extend the trip so far, but there were pressing invitations to take in Vicksburg and Nashville, so it was done. There will be some speeches made after leaving Canton, and it will be an interesting trip for that reason if for no other. The return will be made to Washington on October 8th or 9th.

The war-hungry, and there are a good many of them in every country, have been pricking up their ears and licking their lips over the report that there was immediate, or almost immediate danger of a clash with Japan. The Japs, according to report, had actually taken possession of one of the Philippines, and this was the beginning of a series of aggressions that was to lead to hostilities. The possession seized was Patras Island, and as soon as the Navy Department heard of it there was a ransacking of atlases to see just where and how much we had been despoiled. It took some time to find out, as Patras Island is not to be found except on some very large hydrographic office charts. It proved, however, to be a real island about 60 miles outside the jurisdiction of the United States and almost 200 miles from the nearest one of the Philippines. It is a little spot of sand in the track of vessels from Hongkong to Manila. It is almost a mile long, nearly half a mile wide, and the top elevation is 30 feet above sea level. There is no water on it, nor anything else so far as has been discovered, but it is used as a haven for Chinese fishing junks, and probably Chinese pirates also. If Japan wants it there is no apparent reason why she should not take it. War with the Mikado's kingdom may come some time, but Patras Island is hardly even the beginning of an excuse.

Decidedly more important than the occupation of Patras Island is the ravaging of the Pacific Coast of Alaska by the Japanese seal poachers. There are three revenue cutters on duty in the north Pacific, the Perry, the McCulloch and the Manning, but all of them are known now to be in the Bering Sea, and the poachers, knowing this, are killing seals on the south coast of Alaska with impunity. They have even become so bold as to make descents on some of the unprotected coast towns, ravaging them much as the Vikings used to do the unprotected coast of Britain. The attitude of the Japanese government is such as to encourage the poachers, and there is every prospect that there will be another clash, such as resulted in five of the Japs being killed on the island of St. Paul about a year ago.

With these continual small provocations it is little wonder that the people of the Pacific Coast are looking forward with interest and enthusiasm to the coming of the battleship squadron. Representative McCreary, who is now the ranking member of the House Committee on foreign affairs, was talking of the movement of this squadron this week. He said that he was thoroughly in favor of the cruise. It was not only that the appearance of this powerful squadron in the Pacific would do much to increase American prestige there, but the cost of the expedition would not be much greater than keeping the ships in commission on this side of the continent. The chief added expense will be for coal, but the added experience that both officers and men will get on the cruise will far outweigh the expense.

In connection with the coming cruise, one of the most remarkably baseless stories that has been set afloat recently is that crediting the President with having made an arrangement with Germany to protect the Atlantic Coast while the battleship squadron is away. The tale goes that the President and the Kaiser have reached an understanding whereby the German Navy is to keep a fatherly eye on the unprotected Atlantic Coast while the American fleet is in the Pacific. In the first place, it is entirely improbable that the Kaiser would consent to any such arrangement. In the second place, it would be a good deal like hiring a wolf to watch sheep to invite any such protection, and finally, the President would have no authority to enter into any such agreement with a foreign power without the consent of Congress, which of course never would be granted.

It may be as well for any nervous citizens to remember that there is no need to worry over the Atlantic Coast, even if all the battleships and cruisers in the navy were absent or sunk. The system of coast artillery has been developed in recent years so that any American harbor would be adequately protected from invasion by a foreign fleet. Every commercial harbor on the coast, too, has been effectively mapped and mined, and there are enough of the old type of monitors left to make a respectable showing as harbor defenders. The monitor is an obsolete type as a seagoing vessel, but in smooth water they are equal to floating forts, and could be relied on to give a very good account of themselves if they were ever called into action, which is extremely improbable.

HIGH SPRINGS NEWS.

Sad Death of Bennie Hobbs—Revival Meeting Closed.

High Springs, Sept. 7.—A picnic party, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Summers, spent Monday at Warren's Cave.

Mrs. H. McL. Grady returned Thursday from Savannah, where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cole.

Mrs. Gordon Hunter has returned from the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Anderson have returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Mary Richardson, who has been visiting Mrs. P. P. Wood, returned to her home in Macon, Friday.

Mrs. Green of Tampa is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. B. Phifer.

The revival services conducted in the Methodist church by Rev. M. Cecil, closed Friday night. It was much enjoyed by all who attended and accomplished much good.

Mrs. A. E. Summers is visiting Tampa, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McGee.

A very sad death occurred here on September 3rd. Little Bennie Hobbs, son of Mrs. Alice Hobbs, died after an illness of only two days. He would have been eight years old the 30th of September, and was a large child for his age. Little Bennie was very bright and was quite a favorite in the town. His death was especially sad as he was his mother's only child. He was buried Thursday afternoon, Rev. E. B. Clark conducting the funeral services. A large number of friends attended the funeral. Mrs. Hobbs has the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

LETTER TO O. P. CANNON,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir: Suppose you've got 200 cows; how much will you take for calves and milk of 100 of 'em next year—you pick out the 100?

How much for the other 100?

The point is: cows are not all alike, and you know which is which.

It is so with paint. You've got one best cow in that herd. There are 200 different paints in the United States; and one best. You know your best cow; we know the best paint.

The best cow is the one that gives the best calves and milk. The best paint is the one that covers most surface and stays there longest—neither paint nor cow goes by color—nobody asks whether Holstein or Jersey is better to look-at.

Ten gallons Devoe will cover your barn and wear 10 years; it'll take 15 of another paint, and that paint'll wear 5 years.

Reckon costs. Devoe: 10 gallons $1.75, $17.50; about 10 days' work $3, $30; the job, $47.50 for ten years; $4.75 a year. The other: 15 gallons $1.60, $24; about 15 days' work $3, $45; the job, $69 for five years; $13.80 a year. Devoe $4.75 a year; the other $13.80 a year. Difference $9 a year.

That's how to reckon cows and paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Women Avoid Operations

MISS ROSE MOORE

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure. The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 207 W. 38th St., N. Y. She writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

In order to make room for our fall goods, which are now arriving, we will have a general clearance sale during this month of all summer goods remaining in the various departments. It will pay you to visit our store during this month to pick up some of the many bargains which we are offering. J. Manasse.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Miss Margaret Bell Taylor, who has been spending the past few weeks at her old home in Virginia, has accepted a position as stenographer at the Gainesville National Bank. Miss Taylor has been for the past two or three years employed in her profession in Jacksonville, and friends here are delighted to learn that she has decided to remain in Gainesville.

D. B. Zetrouer of Rochelle, D. Barton Keep of Boardman, Judson Jones of Rocky Point, Jack Beasley of Standford, T. M. Cauthen of Waldo, J. R. Smith of Trenton, Ed Rucker of Lottieville, T. G. The W. G. Hyde Company, one of the largest and strongest concerns of its kind in this section of Florida, has a new advertisement in this issue, in which they advertise September as the bargain month at this great department store. They are offering many choice articles in every department at ridiculous prices, in order to make room for the immense line of fall goods soon to arrive, as the buyer is now in the Eastern markets. Mrs. S. R. Hitch, the up-to-date milliner, has decided to return for the fall, and is also in the Eastern markets selecting material and studying the latest styles. The millinery department will be made a special feature of this great store during the fall.

A PROSPECT FOR GAINESVILLE.

Eminent Tennessee Physician May Locate Sanitarium Here.

Dr. G. M. Masters, a noted physician and owner of a sanitarium in Newport, Tenn., is in the city on business connected with the United States land office. Dr. Masters is not here practically on this mission, but he is interested in Florida from a standpoint of bringing health to the invalid, and has an intention of locating a large sanitarium in some part of the State. He was attracted to Gainesville by the splendid reputation of the city for morality and religious and educational advantages, which is known in every part of the United States. Mayor Thomas showed this distinguished visitor about the city, visiting the various places of interest, and at the conclusion of the drive he expressed himself as being well pleased. It may be that he will locate his institution here.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

S.S.S. NATURE'S TONIC

Every one should take a tonic in the Spring; their systems require it. The blood has become thick and sluggish with the accumulations left in the system from the inactive, indoor life and from the heavy, rich foods of the Winter season. The blood, being in this unnatural and disordered condition, is unable to furnish the body with the increased amount of nourishment necessary for the more energetic life of Spring and Summer, and the system suffers from debility, weakness, nervousness, indigestion, loss of appetite, and many other unpleasant symptoms of a disordered blood circulation. When the system is in this run-down and disordered condition it is not safe to take unknown concoctions, sarsaparillas, compounds, etc., because they usually contain potash or some other equally strong and harmful mineral ingredient, which acts unfavorably and often dangerously on the depleted, weakened system at a time when it needs gentle and natural stimulation to throw off the impurities and recuperate its lost energy. S. S. S. is appropriately called Nature's tonic. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks from the great storehouse of forest and field, selected for their purifying and health-restoring qualities, and as it does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form it is perfectly safe for young or old. S. S. S. acts directly on the blood, ridding it of all impurities and poisons, and restoring the lost properties of rich, nutritive strength so that it is able to supply the system with the healthful, invigorating energy needed to pass the trying season of the year. Its action is the most pleasant, prompt and satisfactory of all tonics, and those who feel the need of such a medicine will do well to commence the use of S. S. S. at once. S. S. S. restores lost energy, relieves the tired, worn-out feeling, helps the appetite, aids digestion, and adds tone and vigor to the system. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

BURTZ' NEW DIRECTORY.

Work is Progressing Nicely, and Book Will Be Out Soon.

The publisher of the new Burtz City Directory for 1907-8 is making fairly good headway, and the book will be out early in October. The task is a long and tedious one, full of "trials and tribulations," but it will be finished in due time. The compiler has been at work nearly a month in collecting names and other data.

This directory, like the directory of 1906-7, will be up-to-date in every way, cloth bound, and printed on the very best grade of enameled book obtainable. It will also be illustrated profusely with new half-tone scenes of business houses, residences and street scenes of Gainesville.

The city having grown wonderfully within the past two years, and the territorial limits having been extended, the new directory will naturally be larger in number of pages than the current number.

Cures Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Columbus, O., Hotel Burns.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Fire, which, it is believed, was of incendiary origin, destroyed the North hotel. All the occupants made their escape, although many got out only by the narrowest margins. Within a week there have been two mysterious fires in the hotel. The loss is $200,000.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in every one's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work, for the information of those who like to know all about it, we would say that Herpicide, a destroyer or killer of germs, "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair. It is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS.

One declares that it is easy enough to say: "I will rise. I will get ahead. I will be somebody. I will make use of my talents." The world is crammed full of men who said that. Men who said that very thing— and never rose, never got ahead, never were anybody, and never got to where they could use even their natural ability. How many do you know who are making miserable failures in life? And the last one of these fellows apologize by saying: "The world is against me." Don't you believe any such stuff. Those men are the world's shirkers.

There is to me a very striking thread that runs through Florence Shore's story—"Common Clay." I reproduce a passage that so clearly marks the boundary, that twilight boundary lying between the right and the wrong in modern life. "Suspect!" said Gloria, wonderingly. "But what is there to suspect. You talk as though we had done something wrong —you and I. We've never broken the law, Ronnie, or done anything wrong. We just love each other—we can't help it. You can't stop the wind from blowing or the clouds from drifting, and you can't stop one heart from loving another. I'm Tom's wife—that's civilization, but I love you—that's Nature." There it is!

Can you spread mortar well? Then you have no right to waste your time sweeping streets. Have you the inspiration of a poet—could you sing a song that would chase the world-shadows? Then you have no right to waste your time spreading mortar. Can you create—could you originate something for which humanity is waiting? Then you have no right to imitate. Say—can you smile? Then what right have you to carry that gloomy, woe-be-gone look on your face? Say—could you lift a fellow just a little more into the glorious sunshine? If you don't, you're a coward and a brute. Don't you know that every time there is an added ability it adds another obligation?

If left for me to decide, this age needs a generation of housekeepers. Our seminaries may turn out a charming girl graced by the highest possible accomplishments. That's all right—but what men pine for is a real woman in the home. Most girls are destined to be the wife of some one in the great middle classes—the toiler. She is certain to marry a man who is not overly rich nor underly poor. No man leads his bride to the altar—and then into slavish toil. He does want to lead a woman to that altar who can adjust herself, if necessary, to menial toil. The average American man dreams of a woman who will still lavish her love when every other heart in the world deserts and who will not discard him if fate comes and dollars take the wings of the morning.

Victor Hugo says in his description of a French nun, "She had a sublime capacity for flinging herself away." Every real man is longingly and lovingly looking for the woman who has the capacity to "love much," and a sublime capacity for "flinging herself away" for that which she loves. That man may have a crude and unfortunate way to express his affections, but you may be assured in his deeper heart he will worship at her shrine. You may put a thousand miles between them and he will still turn his face toward his goddess. You may drive him into a desert of wandering because of his imperfections and his supposed unworthiness, but by day and by night he burns incense near the altar of his idol that comes to him in his visions and his dreams.

I never grow tired catching the vision of the world's Christ as his great tender heart shields a fallen woman from the blast of public scorn. "Let him that is without sin cast the first stone"—and those good men that had dragged her into the limelight slipped away. The force of the utterance was in the majesty of him who made the challenge—the Christ. Pure as he was, he himself threw no stone. As the days come to me, with an ever-deepening shadow, I am drifting toward a bitter hatred of those who dare lay one more stone on shoulders already blood-stained and bruised. That picture is ever before me. And, for one among the thousands who must suffer in silence, I have learned the reaches of a friendless agony. No wonder she sought even the shadow of his form. That man is great—he towers infinitely above his kind to whom the despondent turn as they would to a shelter in the time of storm.

James McElhaney, a disciple of the Osler theory, has taken his own life. He practiced what he believed. He left this message: "There was a time when I could successfully combat the slings and arrows of an outrageous fortune, but now, when I have passed the Osler mark, I find it a losing battle, and deem it expedient to stop the conflict. All things considered, I think it the part of wisdom and prudence, now while in health, sober, and in my right sense, to cross over the divide to the great beyond." Poor McElhaney believed that. The poor fellow was true to his convictions. He might have believed he had the right to steal, to make money at any hazard, to believe that moral laws were false standards. He might have believed that one need to be concerned about no one but self. Suppose these were real convictions? Would we be justified in following our convictions? To be true to a false conviction is as fatal as being false to a true conviction.

Once, a ship sailing from the Orient brought a very large number of caged birds. In mid-ocean one restless bird escaped from the cage. In his wild delight, he swept through the air—away and away from his prison. He fairly bounded on outstretched wings. Freedom—how sweet it seemed. He disappeared across the trackless waste. After hours had passed, and to the amazement of a crew and passengers, he appeared again struggling to reach the ship on heavy wings. He settled breathlessly on the deck. Over the boundless deep he had sought the ship again—now no longer his prison, but his happy home. Like the caged bird, many a restless spirit has left an environment grown burdensome, in the aimless flight across the stormy main of life he comes back to find the old place transformed into joy and comfort. The lovers that drifted from us in the long ago will return when the shadows lengthen. It may be the flight is necessary to teach a secret that is learned only when the seas are raging. The poor heart turned loose to wander alone in the storm never forgets the happy hours in affection's early morning. He cannot forget the bliss when love must whisper her secrets.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proved especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by all druggists.

Immigrants Fall Heir to Fortune.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 7.—Commissioner Watson has received a letter from an attorney in Belgium saying that two of the Belgians who came to South Carolina on the second trip of the Wittekind last winter, are heirs to a fortune in their native country, and asking that they be notified so that they may fill out the necessary papers and if they desire may return home.

RACE WAR THREATENED.

Shelbyville, Ind., Blacks and Whites Having Clashes.

Shelbyville, Ind., Sept. 7.—Shelbyville is in the throes of another race war. The trouble was started on Wednesday when five negroes attacked Policeman Daniel Starkey, beat him into insensibility and fled when a crowd of whites arrived. Five shots were fired at the fleeing negroes but none, so far as known, took effect.

A force of one hundred whites was quickly formed and secured the city.

Mayor Shaw and a party of policemen, accompanied by some of the negro men, Sherman Scott and Robert Marshall, searched all parts of the city. They were placed in jail, where they are closely guarded. The other negroes have not as yet been arrested.

The police kept local negroes on the move all Wednesday night. They were not permitted to congregate on street corners or in the portion of the town where they reside.

By Thursday night the streets were cleared of negroes.

No violence was attempted during the night, but crowds of white citizens stood on the street corner threatening the blacks.

UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE.

Americans Held by Mexican Authorities Given Freedom.

Newark, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Grant Ferguson, a former Baltimore and Ohio conductor here, telegraphs from Aguas Calientes, Mexico, Thursday, as follows:

"Edward Stover and W. B. Speed, were released from prison Tuesday by order of the Mexican government unconditionally and no charges against them."

Stover and Speed were two American conductors, who were imprisoned in Mexico over a year ago, charged with a murder which neither committed.

Ferguson, learning of their imprisonment and conviction without trial, took the cases up with the United States government and with Senators Foraker and Dick and was promised assistance. Ferguson secured testimony, which he presented in the form of affidavits to the Mexican government and the federal officers, and has worked for months, with the result just obtained.

One of the imprisoned conductors formerly lived at Akron, O.

BRYAN SCORES TAFT.

Attacked Views of the Secretary on National Policies.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 7.—Ten thousand people Wednesday heard W. J. Bryan reply to the recent address of Secretary of War Taft, upon the Oklahoma-Indian Territory political situation in convention hall, and 3,000 people unable to secure admittance to the auditorium attended an open air meeting near by. Mr. Bryan was enthusiastically received.

In addition to scoring Secretary Taft roundly for placing his personal ambitions above the welfare of the people of Oklahoma and attacking the views of the secretary of war on national policies, Mr. Bryan declared that the constitution of the proposed new state was even better than that of the United Sates.

THINK STRIKE AVERTED.

Settlement of Louisville Street Car Employees' Grievances.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7.—The threatened strike of the employees of the Louisville Railway company, which was believed to be inevitable Thursday night, has been averted, for the present at least, and the cars are running as usual.

The credit for the settlement of the situation belongs to Mayor Bingham. Mr. Bingham secured the promise of the representatives of the company at a conference held in his office to give the union men further assurances that no discriminations will be made against them. This was agreed to in writing, and placards will be posted to that effect by the railway company.

HAND BURNED TO A CRISP.

Spark from Pipe Ignited Bandage Soaked with Turpentine.

Marion, Ohi, Sept. 7.—Suffering from blood-poisoning in the index finger of his right hand, Charles Newcomb, aged 70, had his hand treated by a physician here, who wrapped it to the wrist with bandages.

Returning home, Newcomb saturated the swathed member with turpentine. While smoking his pipe shortly afterwards a spark set fire to the bandages and the old man's hand was burned to a crisp.

DEMOCRATIC BANQUET.

W. J. Bryan Will Be One of the Prominent Speakers.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 7.—Arrangements have been perfected by the democratic state central committee for the annual banquet to the members of the party, in Lincoln, Sept 21. Invitations have been sent to a large number of democrats of national reputation, among them being Governor Campbell, of Texas; and John W. Kern, of Indianapolis. William J. Bryan will be present, and will deliver one of the principal speeches of the evening.

This banquet is an annual affair, but is prior to the election for the first time because of the meeting of the candidates and the party to formulate a platform under the new primary law.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. "I'll assure my life tomorrow"

That's good—but how do you know there is going to be any tomorrow for you?

It is the Policy in force TODAY that is going to protect the widows and orphans of tomorrow.

Sometime — between two days — your tomorrows will all pass into yesterdays.

Ninety-seven per cent of all death claims settled in the United States and Canada by during 1906 were settled within ONE DAY after proofs of death were received. Where claims are not paid immediately it is usually due to delay on the part of the beneficiary in submitting complete papers.

There is no excuse for worry—great sorrow is a part of life. But common, ordinary, every-day worry is foolishness, even unto a fool, and moreover it is a habit, and, like all habits, it grows on one. Worry shortens life, dulls the mind, wrecks the nervous system, produces wrinkles, and makes corns on the feet that only a comfortable pair of shoes bought from Hyde & Tench will cure.
